Great Is THY Faithfulness

Violin Solo

Ramparts Walk, Old City, Jerusalem
COVER: Great Is THY Faithfulness

Hooray! We get to walk on the walls surrounding Jerusalem—”Walk about Zion” (Ps. 48:12). We get our tickets near the Jaffa Gate and head across the street to the ascent to the wall. Just like the long-ago watchmen, we take in the broad vistas beyond the walls and peer through the vertical shooting niches. Some of the steps used by the soldiers seem quite high to us, but the railings are secure. We can descend at the Zion Gate, but we think of the purpose for which we are doing this—”that ye may tell it to the generation following” (Ps. 48:13), and we joyfully continue to the end nearer the Western Wall.

Perhaps one of the greatest untold truths of the Bible is God’s abiding love for the Jewish nation, which He chose to call His own. He Who neither slumbers nor sleeps keeps His promises to you, to me, and to His beloved people Israel.

Great is His faithfulness!
