It Is Well with My Soul

The Dan River, Israel

Violin Solo
We enjoy the four walking trails as long as we can among the flora and bubbling brooks, from cold water springs, at Tel Dan each time we go to Israel! Here lies the largest of the three sources of the River Jordan—the Dan River, and this is a wonderland of beauty. Right here was the ancient city of Dan, which marked the northern boundary of Israel (“from Dan to Beersheba”—I Sa. 3:20; II Sa. 3:10, 17:11, 24:15; I Chr. 21:2), and is still on Israel’s northern border.

The sound of water, pouring under and over the paths, accompanies our walk, and we ponder the words:

When peace like a river, attendeth my ways, . . .
Whatever my lot, Thou hast taught me to say,
It is well, it is well with my soul.
It Is Well With My Soul

Refrain

with my soul, It is well, It is well with my soul.
