My Heavenly Father Watches over Me Medley

Dramatic Stone Statue of Elijah
Mukhraka (Arabic word for “a place of burning”)
Carmel Range, Israel
A few shekelim (plural for the Israeli shekel—about the size of our dime, but worth about 25 cents), and we are on our way to the unsurpassed panoramic view from the top of the Carmel Mountains—the traditional site of the meeting between Elijah and the 450 Baal prophets! (I Kings 18) Imagine being able to see Mt. Hermon to the east and the Mediterranean to the west on a clear day!

The people of Israel had been seduced by the pagan cults of Jezebel, the wife of King Ahab (eighth King of Israel, 871-852 B.C.). Both Elijah and the prophets of Baal erected altars on which were placed meat offerings, to see whose God would send down fire. Although Elijah drenched his altar with water, his God alone sent down fire from heaven, and Elijah’s offering burst into flames! When all the Israelites saw it, “they fell on their faces: and they said, The Lord, He is the God! The Lord, He is the God.”

Allegretto (con diletto)

I believe the answer's on the way! I believe the Lord has heard me pray; Cast not away your confidence saith the Lord our God. Now by faith in Him alone I stand, Firmly held by

His almighty hand; Fully trusting in His promise. My heavenly Father watches over me. I trust in God, I know He cares for me. On mountain bleak or on the stormy sea; Though billows roll, He keeps my soul. My heavenly Father watches over me.
